Luas Line B1 (Cherrywood Extension) M50-Overnight Closure

Saturday-Sunday, 10-11 November

Junction 14 (Leopardstown) to Junction 17 (Shankill)

Luas Line B1, or the "Cherrywood Extension" is a 7.5km extension to the Luas Green Line which at present operates between Sandyford and St.Stephen's Green.In order to allow essential Luas Bridge works to take place it is necessary to temporarily close this section of the M50 in both directions from 8pm on Saturday ,10th November until 11am on Sunday 11th November.

Diversions will be signposted in both directions between Junctions 14 and 17 via Leopardstown Road, White's Cross,Stillorgan Road and N.11.

Luas Line B1 will double the length of the existing Green Line and is scheduled for completion in 2010.

Line B1 is an important element of Transport 21, the Government's multi-billion euro transport plan.

The RPA apologises for any inconvenience caused during these essential works and is seeking to keep disruption to a minimum.
