Installation Of The Electrical Systems

The installation of the electrical systems on Luas Citywest, the extension of the Luas Red Line from Belgard to Saggart, is now complete.

Tram Testing Starting

Test running of Luas trams on the extension of the Luas Red Line to Saggart will begin during the first half of April 2011 and continue over the coming months.

For safety reasons, passengers are not allowed to board the trams during this testing phase.

For Your Safety

Pedestrian Safety

- Watch out for trams
- Look both ways before crossing
- Listen for horns and warning bells
